Defendants.)

DEFENDANTS' MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME TO RESPOND TO PLAINTIFF'S COMPLAINT

COME NOW Defendants and respectfully request an extension of time for filing their responsive pleading to Plaintiff's Complaint, filed in the above-styled case, based on the following:

1. This lawsuit was discussed by the Court during the last Evidentiary Hearing in the case of Braggs v. Braggs, In the U.S. Middle District of Alabama, Civil Action No. 2:14-cv-601, on October 23, 2018, as that case relates to the above-styled case. The Court determined that this case could be filed separately from the Braggs case, and was not subject to arbitration process in place for claims involving the Americans with Disabilities Act.
2. Defendants are in the process of seeking counsel "outside" of the Alabama Department of Corrections for representation of them in this matter.
3. The defendants believe that outside counsel can be retained by November 16, 2018, but the process of retaining such counsel will take some time to obtain the necessary approval.
4. By filing this motion for extension of time to respond to Plaintiff's

Complaint, the Defendants do not intend to waive any arguments or defenses that would be required in an initial pleading.

WHEREFORE, based upon the foregoing, the Defendants respectfully request the Court grant their motion, extending the time for filing a responsive pleading to Plaintiff's Complaint up to and including November 16, 2018.
